

2018-2019 OKLAHOMA CAMPUS COMPACT HIGHLIGHTS

Workshops/Conferences/Events

- State Workshop on Campus/Community Food Pantries, Campus Survey, and Deliberative Dialoguing, July 29, 2019.
- Tracking and Measuring Community Engagement, January, 2019
- Campus Compact Midwest Regional Conference – University of Minnesota, May 28-31, 2019.
- Barbara Jacoby presentations on service learning institutionalization and assessment for administrators and faculty at TCC, February 2018.
- Campus Vote Initiative – 19 institutions participated in Voter Registration Contest in 2018, 7 winning and 3 runner up campuses awarded.
- Twelfth Oklahoma Service-Learning Conference to be hosted by TCC.

Awards/Grants/Outside Funding

- Tracking and Measuring Community Engagement - $500 in 2019 for Anne Weiss, 18 institutions. Materials posted on OKCC website.
- Campus Compact Midwest Regional Conference – 5 Stipends for participants from 3 institutions
- Eleventh Annual Service Learning Conference – over $2,000 support for participants from 20 institutions.
- Barbara Jacoby - $725 support for workshops and guidance.
- Newman Civic Fellows – 11 students in 2019 and 12 students 2018 – recognized at State Regents meeting with $11,500 in scholarships.
- Thomas Ehrlich Civically Engaged Faculty Award – national Campus Compact. Awareness of Ernest Lynton Award for Early Career Faculty.
- 2 Oklahoma institutions hold Carnegie Community Engagement Classification, 2 more applying.

Presentations/Collaborations

- Annual Oklahoma Service Learning Conferences.
- OK Association of Community Colleges.
- Faculty/Staff Development at Institutions.
- OKCC State Workshops.
- Midwest Campus Compact Conference.
- Annual Campus Survey for Data Collection and Campus Coordination.
- Resources on OKCC website.
- Campus Vote Initiatives.
- Campus Compact Webinars.
- Regional Foodbank Organizations.

Leadership Opportunities & Other Services of Value

- Data collection/ coordination opportunities through participation in National Inventory for Institutional Infrastructure on Community Engagement.
- Campus Compact resources: Education for Democracy, Civic Action Planning, Community Colleges for Democracy, and free webinars and podcasts.
- National Professional Credentialing Program
- National support group for Carnegie Community Engagement Classification application.
- Opportunities for faculty and staff to present on regional and national stages.
- Midwest Campus Compact Engaged Scholars Initiative.
- Campus Vote / 2020 Census participation leadership.

Recognition Programs

- Newman Civic Fellows - student recognition at State Regents meeting, award, national conference, and networking.
- Voter Registration Awards - recognition annually at State Regents meeting.

Communications

OKCC provided faculty, staff, and administrators with information on:

- Numerous national and regional conferences and service opportunities.
- National and state grant and award programs.
- OKCC events and workshops.
- Campus Compact webinars.
- Preparation groups for the Carnegie Commission Community Engagement Elective Classification application.
- OKCC newsletters and updates.
- Organization, collection and comparison of data in Campus Compact member survey.
- Campus Compact professional development institutes for beginning and for experienced civic and community engagement practitioners.
- National experts brought to Oklahoma workshops.
- Campus Compact Professional Credentialing Program

Campus Compact
Oklahoma

Oklahoma Campus Compact (OKCC) supports the civic purpose of higher education that includes developing students as citizens. OKCC will assist member institutions in their efforts to develop citizenship skills by promoting and advancing methodologies including service-learning, volunteerism, community service, and political engagement.