

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

ANN HOLLOWAY

Ann Holloway, from Ardmore, Oklahoma, was appointed as an Oklahoma State Regent by Governor Mary Fallin in May 2013 to fill an unexpired term. In May 2015, she was reappointed by Governor Mary Fallin for a nine-year term ending in May 2024. The Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education is the constitutional coordinating board for the Oklahoma colleges and universities responsible for allocating state funds and setting admission standards and academic policies.

Regent Holloway was previously appointed in 2000 by Governor Frank Keating to a nine-year term for the Regional University System of Oklahoma (RUSO) Board of Regents. Governor Keating also appointed Regent Holloway to the Professional Responsibility Tribunal for the Oklahoma Bar Association. Regent Holloway was also appointed to various Boards and Commissions by Governor Henry Bellmon.

Regent Holloway has been active in many civic and community organizations, including Ardmore Chamber of Commerce, March of Dimes, United Way, Ardmore Little Theater, OK Jaycee Auxiliary (Past President and lifetime member), Committee for Small Business Owners, and Oklahoma Department of Commerce. Regent Holloway has also held, for over 40 years, various positions with the Oklahoma Republican Party.

Previous honors for Regent Holloway include Outstanding Young Women of Oklahoma and Who's Who of Outstanding Women in America.

Regent Holloway received an Associate of Science degree from Murray State College, located in Tishomingo, Oklahoma, and a Bachelor of Science degree from Southeastern Oklahoma State University, located in Durant, Oklahoma.

Regent Holloway lives in Ardmore, Oklahoma, where she was involved in oil field equipment manufacturing for 25 years. She is currently Managing Member of EAH, LLC, which has investments in Oil and Gas and Real Estate, and President of Holloway, Incorporated, Playa del Carmen, MX.

Regent Holloway is married to Fred Minter and is the mother of three daughters, five grandchildren, and six greatgrandchildren.