HIGHER EDUCATION IN OKLAHOMA

Associate and bachelor's degree holders earn a median income 25% and 75% higher, respectively, than those with only a high school diploma.

Data from the National Center for Education Statistics show Oklahoma universities have the eighth-lowest cost of attendance in the nation.

The number of STEM bachelor's degrees conferred by state system institutions increased 42.4% over the last decade, and increased 24% at all degree levels.

Nearly 90% of Oklahomans — and almost two-thirds of non-resident students — who graduate from a state system college or university remain and work in the state.

For every $1 of state appropriations invested, the state system of higher education generates $9.40 in economic return.

The majority of Oklahoma's 100 critical occupations require an associate's degree or higher. The top 29 highest-paying jobs require an associate's degree or higher, and all of the top 10 require a bachelor's degree or higher.

Only 27.9% of Oklahoma citizens hold a bachelor's degree or higher. The national average is nearly 38%.

Oklahoma has the third-lowest public higher education appropriations per FTE in the nation.
